Guest Speaker: Lisa Glastonbury Origin Energy

Introduced by Doug Masterson, Lisa is the Community Relations Officer for the Origin Energy Uranquinty Power Station. Lisa gave us a preview of next week’s visit to the site. Lisa who has been a past GSE member to Canada outlined her Public Relations role with Origin including arranging Community Tours, School visits, Media Liaison. Her interests include Landcare, Healthy Life Styles, Travelling, and Cycling. Vote of thanks was made by Jack Morgan. Uranquinty Power Station is a 640 MW gas-fired peaking power station – one of the largest open cycle gas turbine (OCGT) power stations in Australia. It is designed to generate power at times of high demand, for example in summer when air conditioners tend to be extensively used and throughout winter when there is high demand for heating. It is the only power station of its type in New South Wales

4000 Things You Should Know

Star Fact

A wave over 40m high was recorded by the USS Ramapo in the Pacific in 1933

Something Fishy

Very early one morning, there was a soft knock on the door and a whisper, "Wanna go fishing Ned?"

"Little early, isn't it Billy Joe?"

"What, for fishing?"

"No, for stupid questions."

Meetings are each Wednesday at the Wagga Wagga Country Club 6:30pm
