In essence a board meeting as all those present apart from Max are on the board. We all wish Max and Sue Chapman all the best for their future with their new business and home in Wagga Wagga. Max will be joining the Wagga Wagga Sunrise Rotary Club.

NEWS ITEMS

1. Neil Munro

As of this morning Wednesday 8th June Neil is still in the Intensive Care Unit at Wagga Wagga Base Hospital. I spoke with one of his daughters Sonia this morning and Neil is doing well but still in pain and needs constant supervision. Neil thanks all the members for the wonderful flowers that we sent him. Neil will be moved to Calvary Hospital as soon as a bed becomes available for him and the length of his stay there is unknown at the moment. We look forward to having Neil back at our meetings in the near future.

2. Jason Sachs Induction.

Next Monday we will be inducting our newest member, Jason Sachs, to our club. Jason is a head teacher at the Coolamon Central School and we will welcome Jason's input on the youth of Coolamon and how we can best as Rotarians harness the power of Generation Y in our community.

Would all members and their partners please be there for this meeting. Bring a friend and your partner along for a great night of fellowship alongside a talk on Vietnam by President Ian Durham:

3. Ian Durham on Vietnam

This will be President Ian's last meeting as president, so please come along.

4. The DOG LOGS: Arian Park Fund Raising Night for the Arian Park Youth Shed.

Saturday June 11th at the Arian Park Hotel, tickets are $50 each with up to $5 from tickets sales going to the Arian Park Youth Shed. The Hotel is providing a two course meal and the show. Bookings are essential and can be made on: (02)69741068.

FAREWELL TO PAST PRESIDENT MAX CHAPMAN P.H.F.

Max has been a loyal and hard working member of Coolamon Rotary for 19 years now. Max joined our club on the 1st July 1992. Max and Sue Chapman have now moved to Wagga Wagga and started a new business there. Rotary has not lost Max as he is joining the Wagga Wagga Sunrise Rotary Club.

We will miss Max and Sue Chapman. Over the years Max has held just about every position in our club and was President in 2002-2003.

Max and Sue often held open garden days at their farm "Kiambo" which raised many thousands of dollars for various Rotary projects including Shelterbox. Here are just a few photos:

WE WILL MISS YOU MAX AND SUE YOU WILL BE WELCOME BACK AT OUR CLUB ANYTIME!
