KOOKABURRA

TEACHER: Who is your favorite author?

PUPIL: George Washington.

TEACHER: But George Washington never wrote any books.

PUPIL: You got it.

LIBRARIAN: Why don't you take home a Dr. Seuss?

PUPIL: I didn't know he made house calls.

TEACHER: How many books did you finish over the summer?

PUPIL: None. My brother stole my box of crayons.

TEACHER: How many books have you read in your lifetime?

PUPIL: I don't know. I'm not dead yet.

TEACHER: What did you learn from your history book about Harriet Beecher Stowe?

PUPIL: If you draw a beard and a stovepipe hat on her, she looks exactly like Abraham Lincoln.

TEACHER: What does your history book tell you about the Civil War?

PUPIL: It doesn't tell me anything. I have to read the dumb thing.

My father gave me a really cheap dictionary for my birthday. I couldn't find the words to thank him.

If you don't know what the word "dictionary" means, where would you look it up?

TEACHER: Why are you holding your textbook up to the window?

PUPIL: You told me to open it up to the Middle East.

The Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
