Recognition for pair who often volunteer

JUNEE Rotary Club has awarded Vince Hollis and Mick Summerell for their achievements as two people who work behind the scenes for the benefit of the community.

When it comes to train knowledge, there are few as well versed as Mr Hollis who was recognised with a community service award.

He moved to Junee in 1988 as a train controller before retiring in 2004. Since then he has worked as a volunteer at the Roundhouse Museum three days a week.

Maintaining and restoring the trains and exhibits is just one thing Mr Hollis spends his time doing. He also puts together the roster for volunteers to work as guides and when the museum's short, he fills in.

Mr Hollis isn't just about helping people understand the marvels of rail travel - dedicating two days a week to St Vincent de Paul in Junee.

For the past 20 years, water treatment plant operator Mr Summerell has been looking after your business.

Junee's mayor and Rotarian Lola Cummins said the vocational service award was difficult to judge.

"What we look at is not just doing what you're paid to do, but going well beyond those duties," she said.

"A lot has changed down there since Mick started there 20 years ago,"

Councillor Cummins said Mr Summerell's work at the treatment plant had gone beyond monitoring water volumes and quality.

Mr Summerell has helped develop an diverse environment at the treatment plant which is home to everything from birds to frogs and more.

Cr Cummins said when invited to write a paper on the plant's bio-diversity he was asked to deliver the presentation again at the national conference for water operators taking home the prize not only for the best paper by an operator, but the best overall.

Rotarians handed highest honour

TO BE admitted as a Paul Harris Fellow is one of the highest awards which can be bestowed on a Rotarian.

On Sunday, Junee Rotary Club presented two of their members with the honour - Graeme Guelfi and mayor Lola Cummins.

Mr Guelfi has been a member of Rotary for 32 years and 15 as treasurer but Peter Commens said this was just a portion of his contribution to the community.

A long-serving member of the Volunteer Rescue Association, the Junee's hockey club, St Luke's Church, the Masonic Lodge, the development of Vita-Call in Junee and community transport were some of causes Mr Guelfi had dedicated his time to.

"He was asked to look after the gatekeepers for the Junee Show for one to two years," Mr Commens said.

"That was 25 years ago."

Elected in 1983 as a councillor, as deputy mayor in 1995 and mayor in 1997, Mr Guelfi said councillor Cummins had a record of helping drive community development in Junee.

The Junee Recreation and Aquatic Centre, Medical Centre and new Library were all thanks to the leadership she had demonstrated on council - which itself was recognised with the AR Bluett Award in 2002 for being one of NSW's most progressive local governments.

Mr Guelfi said Cr Cummins' mayoralty represented a turning point in Junee's development.

In between all of this Cr Cummins found time to work hard in growing the Riverina Schoolboys Carnival.

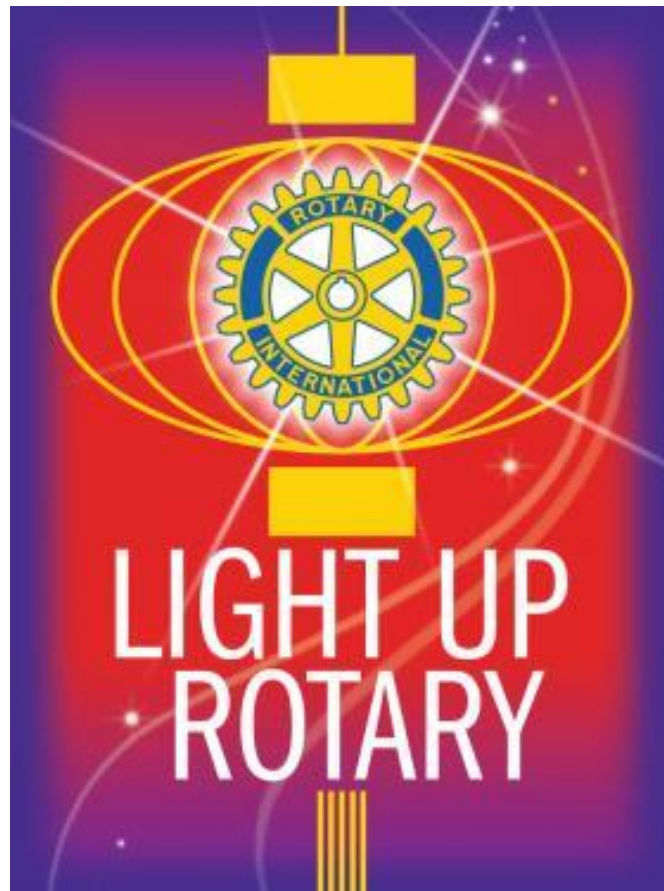

"I look at our club members who are Paul Harris Fellows and their years of service ... it's service to our community, service to our fellows and service to our club," Cr Cummins said.

"Rotary is well supported by the community due to the work done by the members...
