Apologies:	Ian Good, John Wright, Ross Reid
Visiting Rotarians:	District Governor - David Kennedy, ADG – Alan Sharp
Guests:

Guest Speaker

DG – David Kennedy

David spoke enthusiastically about the current year's theme to Light up Rotary ...and encouraged every-one to light 1 Candle & together (over 1 million) we can achieve a lot.

David also urged members to also lighten up Rotary meetings making them fun and attractive to new members. David challenged each member to identify a prospective new member ...for the club to approach.

David promoted the next district conference which would be designed to meet member's needs.

Finally David promoted the district Facebook Site.

Future Events

Foundation Dinner

- The dinner is on in Young on Tuesday, 28th October start 6.30 for 7pm to est 9.30pm finish.
 - We have an interesting Guest Speaker Rotary Peace Scholar Naing Ko Ko who has worked on the Thai-Burma border in the areas of political reforms including democracy, human rights, national reconciliation and economic development.
 - For more than 10 years, he collaborated with the UN agencies, state and non-state-activists and intellectuals. His advocacy work with exiled Burmese political coalitions took him all around the world to meet with key global decision makers. He was an intern of the European Parliament and has been promoting democracy and national reconciliation for Burma on the global stage.
 - New Zealand accepted Naing as a UN-sponsored refugee in 2007.

Sergeants Session

Des again had no difficulty imposing fines on Doug Bell the DG & others...
