Special Combined Meeting with View Club

We joined View Club for a combined meeting at St Luke's. Again another entertaining night; with the 'Rotary Table' scoring top marks in the Mensa test.

President Doug's Remarks

We have had a great start to our new Rotary year. During the last club meeting of Peter's year as President the Club finalized our donations for the year. What a great way to complete Peter's two year. Because of everybody's assistance in fund raising throughout the year there were significant funds for distribution.

Our changeover lunch attracted a lot of support from District Governor Geoff and his wife Bettye, Past District Governor Greg Brown and our Assistant Governor Alan Sharp. It was very pleasing to see a good contingent from the Junee Lions Club as well.

Members and their partners from 7 other Clubs in Group 5 attended many with their partners. A total of 64 sat down to lunch and all seemed to enjoy their relaxed Sunday afternoon. Thanks to Des Carmody for planning the event and preparing the handout that was made available for all attending.

On Tuesday this week we held a joint meeting with the Junee VIEW Club and 8 of our members and 4 partners (plus 2 grandchildren) attended what was an enjoyable and relaxed evening. One of our tables took out equal first in the quiz winning Mars Bars for their efforts.

Next week 16th July we will hold a Club Assembly and review the planning for the coming year.

I would like to invite our two awardees who were not available to come to our Changeover to come to special Club meeting on 30th July for the presentation of their awards. More on that topic to follow

Wagga Murrumbidgee Club is coming for a visit with us on Tuesday 6th August and John Glassford has agreed to be our guest speaker for the night.
