Something Fishy

A fisherman who as obviously the victim of a nasty accident came staggering into the pub with both arms in plaster casts.
"I'll have a beer thanks mate, he said to the barman. "And could you hold it up to my lips for me?"
"No worries," said the barman.
"Couldn't light a cigarette for me, too, could you? Asked the bloke.
"Not a problem," said the barman.
"Thanks mate," said the bloke. "Me wallets' in me back pocket, if you'd like to get it out for me."
"There you go,:" said the barman.
"Cheers," said the bloke. "By the way, where's the toilet?"
And without a moment's hesitation, the barman said, "Go two blocks up the street, turn right and it's the second on the left."

Meetings are each Wednesday at the Wagga Wagga Country Club 6:30pm
