FROM THE COBURG LOUNGE ROOM TO THE WORLD TEACHING STAGE

When you have a vision and take the leap you never really have any idea where you are heading or where you will end up. Matt talks about his humble beginnings through to hitting the world teaching stage. Matt is one to never give up and will give anything a good crack.

REINVENTION OF SELF AND BUSINESS

COVID-19 changed the world and changed us as a culture with many takeaways, being in one of the most locked down places in the world I was often left thinking and wondering where to next. How to survive during the pandemic was more than just changing the way you run your business, but what changes to yourself was necessary to catch the ride out of the pandemic and reinvent everything you do to remain viable.

NEW BEGINNINGS & BRINGING IT ALL TOGETHER

Matt heads back to study and gets equipped with skills to take the next and leap into an exciting chapter. Is it all what it's cracked up to be? Or do you need to do something more? Are you happy? Things happen for a reason, but why do these things happen, and do they make us stronger and make us want to strive for more in everything we do.

Please feel free to reach out for any questions.
